DAILY GAZETTE.

Why Fort Sumter was Surrendered.

THE ACTION OF THE FLEET EXPLAINED.

The New York Evening Post has the following explanation of the plan of the Government, and the inexplicable inaction of what the Charleston agent of the Associated Press said was the "Abolition fleet" lying off the harbor, while the bombardment of Sumter was going on:

THE FIRST DEFEAT OF THE REBELS.

It is evident that General Scott has once more beaten the enemies of his country by mere force of his admirable stratigical genius. To do so, he has, as was necessary, suffered not only traitors, but loyal men, to rest under a misapprehension.

Those who remember the impatience with which the American public watched his apparent inaction at one period of the Mexican war, will not have forgotten the shout of admiration which went up from the people when it was at last discovered that the supposed inaction had been in reality the wisest and shrewdest action; and that by the most masterly display of military strategy he had outwitted the enemy, and obtained a splendid victory when nought but defeat and disaster stared our army in the face.

He who reads and compares carefully the despatches from Charleston, Montgomery and Washington in this morning's journals, cannot avoid the gratifying conclusion that that which looks at first blush like a disaster to the government, is in reality but the successful carrying out of an admirable plan of military operations. Before this the traitors see themselves caught in the toils. In fact it seems to have sickened the chief traitor, Davis, already, for Montgomery despatches relate that when the news from Charleston came, and the mob serenaded Davis and Walker, "the former was not well and did not appear;" and even his Secretary was costive of words, and "declined to make a speech."

The facts which tend to the conclusion we have pointed out, may be summed up as follows:

General Scott has been averse to the attempt to reinforce Fort Sumter. He saw that it would cost men and vessels which the government could not spare just now.

As an able general, he saw that Sumter and Charleston were points of no military importance, and would only need valuable men to hold, if we took them—with no adequate advantage gained.

He saw that the two keys of the position were Fort Pickens in the Gulf, and Washington, the capital.

He knew that Davis had not the generalship to perceive, that on the 4th of March, and for some weeks afterwards, it would have been almost impossible for the federal government to defend Washington against such a force as the traitors had already collected before Sumter, and which could be marched at any time on the capital not yet prepared for defence—not yet even purged of traitors.

His plans, based on these facts, were at once laid. By every means in his power, he concentrated the attention of traitors and loyal men on Sumter. He must have seen with infinite satisfaction the daily increasing force gathered at Charleston, while the government lost no time in strengthening the capital. Every hour the traitors spent before Sumter gave them only more surely into the hands of their master.

To make assurances doubly sure, he pretended to leave Fort Pickens in the lurch. It was said to be in no danger, when Scott knew that a formidable force was investing it. Men feared that all would be lost by the inaction of the government, when it was never more shrewdly energetic.

At last Washington was reasonably safe. Forces were gathered. Once more our brave old general saw himself with means in his hands. Then came the armament popularly believed to be destined for Sumter. The government said not a word—only asked of the traitors the opportunity to send its own garrison a needed supply of food. They refused—and fearing the arrival of the federal fleet—drunk and bespotted with treason, and impatient to shed the blood of loyal soldiers, they made the attack.

Scarce had they begun when they saw, with evident terror, ships hovering about the harbor's mouth. They plied their cannon in desperate haste; but no ship came in to Anderson's help! What was the matter?

Made bold by the furious thirst for blood, they dared the ships to come in. But no ship offered its assistance to Anderson! More, the guns of Sumter were only directed at the works of the traitors, and Major Anderson evidently tried to fire in such manner as not to kill men. He did not even try a few bombs on the city, though it is certain, from a letter of one of his own officers, that his guns would reach beyond the centre of Charleston.

What was the matter? Beauregard must have thought the government officers both fools and cowards. When his own boats were sailing unharmed about the harbor, between Sumter and Moultrie, bearing his orders, was it possible that the forces outside could stand apathetic, while a brave garrison was being done to death? When the battle was to the death, would a shrewd officer neglect to divert his enemy's attention by firing his city?

If it seemed mysterious to us, waiting on Saturday with breathless suspense, it must have seemed incomprehensible to any cool head in the traitor camp.

Still no ships come in—and in fact the reports state that only three or four small vessels remained in the offing. After forty hours cannonade, in which not one man is killed, Major Anderson, an officer of undoubted courage and honor, runs up a white flag, surrenders the fort, and becomes the guest of Gen. Beauregard. Let no man hastily cry traitor! He only obeyed his orders. He made an honorable defence. He took care to shed no blood. He "gave orders not to sight men, but to silence batteries."

Meantime, while the rebels are ignorantly glorifying the victory of five thousand men over eighty, what news comes from Montgomery? The telegraph, in the hands of the rebels, says:

"Fort Pickens was reinforced last night."

"It is understood that Charleston harbor is blockaded."

Dispatches from Lieutenant Slemmer, captured by the rebels, give Davis the first intimation of his defeat! No wonder the rebel chief was "sick" and went to bed!—No wonder that his secretary, Walker, declined to make a speech.

And what from Washington? These significant paragraphs:

"The report that Anderson has surrendered and is the guest of Gen. Beauregard, has been communicated to the president.—The latter was not surprised, but, on the contrary, remarked, "The supply vessels could not reach him, and he did right." When he was told that the report was that nobody was injured in Fort Sumter, he seemed very much gratified, and remarked that he regretted that Major Anderson could not be supplied, as that was all he needed.

"The next act in the play will represent a scene at Fort Pickens in Pensacola harbor."

The position of affairs is this: Charleston is blockaded. Fort Pickens is reinforced by troops which the traitors foolishly believed were destined for Sumter. Washington is secure beyond peradventure. The traitors have, without the slightest cause, opened the war they have so long threatened. The country is roused to defend its assailed liberties, and gathers enthusiastically about the government; and treason has been checkmated at the first blow it struck. Let them keep Sumter a few weeks.

Let no man cry traitor to Major Anderson! Let no man fear for the energy of the administration. Let us thank God that brave old General Scott remains to give loyal heart and wise head to his country's service.

BLANK LEASES FOR SALE.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Friday Evening, April 19, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

It is Time to Act.

There should be action now, and not talk. We have had enough of that. Blood has been spilled. The vile traitors at Baltimore have attacked and shot down loyal men from Pennsylvania called to support the government of the United States. We were all attacked when these men fell, the first victims of this unholy and fratricidal war, and we should all feel that brothers have been murdered while defending us. Up, then, men of Wisconsin, and be ready to avenge these martyrs to the cause of order and liberty. We are to have a meeting to-night, to determine what we will do about this matter. Let us tell the people of Janesville what they ought to have done before this, and that is—organize at once two good efficient, reliable companies—equip them at your own expense, if need be; and if any of them have families, provide for them, during their absence. What is money or property in a cause like this? If these citizens will risk their lives and go out to battle for us, should we hesitate about a few paltry dollars, more or less, in giving them a good start, in a glorious cause? Men of Janesville you are expected to do something to-night besides making speeches—your country requires you to ACT.

War Items.

The reports in relation to the seizure of Harper's Ferry are groundless. There is a full company of United States artillerists stationed there, and a strong Union population.

The excitement in Baltimore is increasing. The Union men parade the streets, determined not to be overawed by the secessionists. The minute men have the Union flag flying from their headquarters.—The governor and mayor will issue a joint proclamation to prevent any interference with the passage of federal troops through the city.

Bishop Wood has raised the American flag over the dome of the new cathedral on Logan square in Philadelphia. The dome is 230 feet high.

The banks of Chicago have tendered to Gov. Yates half a million dollars, asked for as a loan for war purposes, Ten thousand people turned out at Cleveland yesterday to escort the Cleveland Grays who left for the rendezvous at Columbus.

Intense war feeling prevails at Pittsburg and business almost suspended. Immense crowds fill the prominent streets, Union flags floating everywhere, volunteer companies all filled and departing eastward; liberal subscriptions being made for the support of their families.

The Boston banks have offered to loan the state one per cent of their entire capital for the defence of the government.—The capital of these banks is $38,500,000.

Two thousand men have enlisted in Chicago, which is double the number allowed the city.

The Zouave regiment at Chicago is nearly full. The wealthy people of that city propose to equip them at their own expense. They have also subscribed $6,000 for the support of volunteers until they are taken charge of by the state.

Lieut. Beale, paymaster of the army, has resigned his commission.

Gov. Letcher telegraphs to the war department, refusing to furnish troops, and saying that Virginia will fight back.

We understand that men enough have enlisted in Madison to form two companies.

The Louisville Journal says:

We understand that there have been serious difficulties in effecting the organization of the volunteer regiment in this city destined for the confederate states.

The Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig of Saturday, says:

A dispatch to a gentleman in this city, dated Lynchburg, 12 o'clock at night, Thursday 11th, states that the fighting had not then commenced at Charleston. The war steamers of the United States government were hourly expected; and, as a matter of course, upon their arrival and attempt to furnish Anderson, as they will do and ought to do, or die in the attempt, the conflict will come on.

The United States government manufactered 1200 guns at their armory in Springfield, Mass., during the month of March, an increase of 400 over the previous month. A few boxes of these guns were forwarded to Washington on Tuesday, for the use of the federal troops.

It is said that Mr. Lincoln is in constant receipt of letters, some anonymous and some otherwise, warning him of personal danger.

Advices from St. Louis are to the effect that the excitement occasioned by recent events at the south is intense; there is a division of sentiment as to the duty of citizens—some siding with the traitors to the government, among whom are the editors of the Republican and State Journal, but the mass of the people adhering to the government and the Union.

It has been deemed expedient by the U. S. authorities to strengthen the pratections of the U. S. Arsenal in that city, upon which the secession sympathisers might possibly make an attack. Jackson, the governor of the state, is an open secessionist.

PROVIDE FOR THE FAMILIES OF THOSE WHO ENLIST.—There are many persons who desire to volunteere who have families that would be left without the necessary means of support. We would suggest for the consideration of the meeting to be held to-night, that some provision should be made for providing them with the means of livelihood while those going to the wars shall be absent.

Meeting at the Court Room.

Mr. I. Codding will speak at the Court Room in this city, to-morrow, Saturday, evening. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

For the Daily Gazette.

Washington's Advice.

The fanatics and hot-bloods of the south have evidently forgotten WASHINGTON and his counsels. Had they possessed a tithe of his true patriotism and love of country they would never have struck a single blow in the fearful strife of anarchy and disunion against the peace, prosperity and happiness of the people of these states. But against our southern brethren rests a serious and fratricidal charge! Their hands, if not even red with blood, are stained fearfully with guilt and crime. The overt act of treason has been committed. In their frenzy and hot haste they have aimed a blow at the government which has nourished and protected them in all their inalienable rights for three fourths of a century. They have commenced the civil strife, and they alone must be held responsible for the fearful consequences that may ensue. May God direct the issue for the best good of our country and the world.

Though our southern brethren have forgotten the "Father of his Country," and have ignored entirely his wise and patriotic sentiments, and have rushed headlong into treason and rebellion, it becomes us to ponder well his earnest words in regard to the importance of our National Union:

"The unity of government, which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so; for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence; the support of your tranquility at home; your peace abroad; of your safety; of your prosperity; of that very liberty which you so highly prize. But as it is easy to forsee, that, from different causes and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed, to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth; as this is the point in your political fortress against which the batteries of internal and external enemies will be most constantly and actively (though often covertly and insidiously) directed; it is of infinite moment, that you should properly estimate the immense value of your national Union to your collective and individual happiness; that you should cherish a cordial, habitual, and immoveable attachment to it; accustoming yourselves to think and to speak of it as a palladium of your political safety and prosperity; watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned; and indignantly frowning upon the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts. This government, the offspring of your own choice, uninfluenced and unawed; adopted upon full investigation and mature deliberation; completely free in its principles; in the distribution of its powers uniting security with energy, and containing within itself provision for its own amendment, has a just claim to your confidence and support. Respect for its authority, compliance with its laws, acquiescence in its measures, are duties enjoined by the fundamental maxims of true liberty. The basis of our political system is the right of the people to make and to alter their constitutions of government. But the constitution which at any time exists, until changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people, is sacredly obligatory upon all. The very idea of the power and the right of the people to establish government, presupposes the duty of every individual to obey the established government.

"It is, indeed, little else than a name, where the government is too feeble to withstand the enterprises of faction, to confine each member of society within the limits prescribed by the laws, and to maintain all in the secure and tranquil enjoyment of the rights of person and property.

"If, in the opinion of the people, the distribution or modification of the constitutional powers be, in any particular, wrong, let it be corrected by an amendment in the way which the constitution designates. But let there be no change by usurpation; for though this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed. The precedent must always greatly overbalance, in permanent evil, any partial or transient benefit which the use can at any time yield.

"It is substantially true that virtue or morality is a necessary spring of popular government. The rule, indeed, extends, with more or less force, to every species of free government. Who that is a sincere friend to it can look with indifference upon attempts to shake the foundation of the fabric?"

Farther on in the document from which I quote, (WASHINGTON'S farewell address) the retiring patriot recommends "avoiding occasions of expense by cultivating peace, but remembering, also, that timely disbursements to prepare for danger, frequently prevent much greater disbursements to repel it." It is a great pity Mr. Buchanan had not learned this important lesson before he entered upon the administration of public affairs.

An occasional review of the political doctrines and sentiments of the fathers of this republic cannot fail to do us good. Let WASHINGTON'S advice be heeded, and let the constitution and the Union be preserved.

Janesville, April 19, 1861. — W. —

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

[Condensed from the Milwaukee Sentinel.]

NEW YORK, April 18.

Major Anderson landed at the battery, and was received by an immense crowd. His carriage was surrounded by people, who expressed by cheers and other demonstrations, their congratulations, and he was followed by an immense throng through Broadway to the Brevoort House, at which place he joined his wife.

The following is a digest of Capt. Doubleday's statement:

The demand to surrender the fort was made on the 11th, and refused not only by Major Anderson, but by the unanimous voice of his command. On Friday morning at 3 o'clock the rebels sent word that fire would be opened on us in an hour, and at 4 o'clock the fire opened from every direction, including a hidden battery. The fire opened with a volley from seventeen morters firing ten inch shells, and from thirty-three guns, mostly columbiads. We took breakfast, however, very leisurely.

The command was divided into three watches, each under the direction of two officers. After breakfast they immediately went to their guns and opened fire on Fort Moultrie, Cumming's Point and Sullivan's Island. The iron battery on Cumming's Point was of immense strength, and most of our shots glanced off. Anderson refused to allow the men to work the guns on the parapette on account of such a terrific fire.

There was scarcely a room left in Moultrie that was inhabitable. Several shots went through the floating battery, but it was little damaged. Two guns on the iron battery were dismounted. A man was stationed to cry "shot" or "shell," when the rebels fired, and our garrison was thus enabled to dodge. At first, the workmen were reluctant, but afterwards fell in and worked faithfully.

The barracks caught fire several times on Friday, but were extinguished by the efforts of Mr. Holt of New York and Lyman of Baltimore—both volunteers. On Saturday the officers' quarters caught fire from the shell, and the main gates were burnt. The magazine was surrounded by fire, and ninety barrels of powder were taken out and thrown into the sea. When the magazine was surrounded by fire, all our materials were cut off. We had eaten our last biscuit two days before. The men had to lay on the ground with wet handkerchiefs on their faces to prevent smothering, and a favorable eddy of wind was all that saved our lives.

The cartridge bags gave out, and five men were employed to manufacture them out of our shirts, blankets and sheets. It will take half a million of dollars to repair Fort Sumter.

The following is the conversation between Major Anderson and Wigfall. The latter said:

"General Beauregard wishes to stop this, sir."

Anderson only replied, "Well-well."

Wigfall.—You have done all that could be done, and General Beauregard wishes to know upon what terms you will evacuate the fort.

Anderson.—General Beauregard is already acquainted with the terms.

Wigfall.—Do I understand that you will evacuate on the terms proposed?

Anderson.—Yes, and only those.

A few minutes after, Col Chestnut and others came from General Beauregard, asking if Anderson wanted any help, stating that Wigfall had not seen Beauregard for two days, and had no authority for his demand on Anderson; to which the Major replied, "Then you have been sold. We will raise our flag again. The requisition was made to keep it down till communication was had with Beauregard.

The firing then ceased, and three hours after another deputation came, agreeing to the terms previously agreed upon. On Sunday morning the steamer Isabella came down, and anchored off the fort, when all the baggage was put on the steamer Clinch.

The troops were under arms, a portion were told to salute the flag, and when the last of fifty guns were fired, the flag was lowered amid the hearty cheers of the men, who then formed and embarked to the tune of Yankee Doodle. Two men were killed on the 2d round of salute, by the premature explosion of a gun, and four were wounded—one badly, and left at Charleston.

Fort Sumter has not been reinforced on any occasion. The Baltic arrived off Charleston the morning of Friday after the firing commenced on Sumter. The Pawnee and Pocahontas arrived next day. The Powhattan and Atlantic have not been seen.

The day that Anderson evacuated, preparations for an attempt to reinforce him had been made. That night a schooner was seized, and agreement made to pay the pilot and Captain $500 to put men into the fort, but the fort was evacuated before an attempt could be made.

Capt. Fox had instructions to attempt to provision the fort without troops. If fired on he was to rush in the best he could, but the gale prevented the arrival of tugs and transports.

The Harriet Lane is soon expected to arrive. The Pawnee has gone to Washington.

Anderson's brother officers express the deepest indignation at any suspicions on their brave commander.

Numerous friends waited on Major Anderson and other Sumter officers during this afternoon, and the appearance of any officer or soldier from Sumter in the street was the signal for a crowd and enthusiastic cheers.

The 5th regiment paid their respects to Maj. Anderson this afternoon, to which he responded from the balcony of the Brevoort House, by returning a simple military salute, amidst the cheering of thousands.

Both the Major and command show the care-worn effects of their gallant seige.

MONTGOMERY, April 18.

A despatch was received at Savannah on the 16th stating that Virginia had passed the ordinance of secession, to take effect in two days. No advices have been received here, nevertheless, it is believed by the government unless the Cincinnati seizures are promptly redressed it will cause a non-intercourse act and seizure of Ohio property in New Orleans. Guns are now fired all over the south for Virginia.

NEW YORK, April 18.

Blank bonds for the southern confederacy, prepared by the bank note company were seized to-day by the district attorney.

The Charleston steamer line has suspended its trips. The Columbia and Marion were flying American flags to-day.

The Post's special despatch says engineers are reconnoitering Washington with a view of erecting defensive works.

The mayor of Georgetown is raising troops for the government.

Davis' proclamation occasions renewed activity, and the mouth of the Mississippi will be rigorously blockaded.

Col. Lepperts has issued orders for the 7th regiment to report for duty at 3 p. m. to-morrow, to leave for Washington.

BALTIMORE, April 18.

A party of secessionists on Federal Hill raised a secession flag at noon, and commenced firing a salute. In a few moments the workingmen from all the foundries in the vicinity hearing the report rushed on them, tore down their flag, spiked the gun then threw it into the river. The secessionists fled in consternation, and the flag was torn in tatters. The enthusiasm was universal for the Union. Not less than 5,000 persons were present.

HARRISBURG, April 18.

Trains are leaving with troops as fast as they are prepared. The governor's war proclamation will be issued to-morrow.—500 volunteers left via the Northern Central railroad for Washington this morning. 700 men arrived to-day, and were sent forthwith. The Patterson division of 600 stand of arms are expected here to-day. Both houses of the legislature met in convention at the hall of the house this a. m. to hear the star spangled banner sung. The refrain was joined in by all the members and the galleries amid the wildest cheering and enthusiasm. The song was afterwards sung in the senate, and in both cases the members and spectators seemed mad with patriotic devotion. Both houses have adjourned.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, April 18, 9 p. m.

Eight hundred Pennsylvania troops have arrived without molestation in Maryland. On the contrary, they were enthusiastically cheered at the various stations between Harrisburg and Washington.

Fifteen hundred New York and Massachusetts troops will be here to-morrow morning.

The Harper's Ferry Arsenal has not been seized, and will not be. It is guarded by a strong artillery force.

Virginia seceded on Tuesday. Secresy was enjoined to cover an intended seizure of the public property. Seven Union members of the convention were mobbed, and left Richmond without their baggage.

The vessels sunk in Norfolk harbor are small and constitute no obstruction whatever. The Gosport navy yard is strongly guarded by war vessels.

Five thousand troops are under arms here to-night. The secessionists are scattering in every direction, and excitement continues at a fearful height.

Cassius M. Clay is organizing a band of Mexican heroes.

There is no apprehension of the result if we are attacked. Every approach is guarded and all the heights occupied.

It is reported that John Minor Botts has been arrested for treason and threatened with hanging.

Opposes the call of the government for volunteers for coercion, and the raising of troops here to cooperate with the southern confederacy when the acknowledged intention of the latter is to march on Washington; that secession is a remedy for no evils; that Kentucky won't take part against the federal government; that Kentucky should maintain an independent position within the Union, against the administration and seceded states, declaring her soil sacred against the hostile tread of either, and that Kentucky be armed in accordance to law.

MAJOR ANDERSON'S DESPATCH TO THE SECRETARY OF WAR.—The following is Major Anderson's dispatch to the Secretary of War:

SIR:—Having defended Fort Sumter thirty-four hours, until our quarters were entirely burned, the main gates destroyed by fire, the gorge wall seriously injured, the magazine surrounded by flames, and its door closed from the effects of heat, four barrels and three cartridges of powder only being available, and no provisions but pork remaining, I accepted the terms of evacuation offered by General Beauregard, being the same offered by him on the 11th inst., prior to the commencement of hostilities, and marched out of the fort on Sunday afternoon, the 14th inst., with colors flying and drums beating, bringing away company and private property, and saluting my flag with fifty guns. [Signed]

ROBERT ANDERSON,
Major 1st Artillery, U. S. A.

Star-Spangled Banner.

BY FRANCIS KEY.

Oh! say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
Oh! say, does the star-spangled banner still wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty hostin dread silence reposes,
What is that, which the breeze o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O long may it wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is the band that so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war, and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave,
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and war's desolation;
Bless'd with victory and peace may the Heaven-rescued land,
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust!"
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

To Assessors.

Section 84 of chapter 31 of the Revised Statutes of this state reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the town assessor in each town in each county, as organized under the town system of government, on or before the first Monday of July, annually, to make out and return into the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county, a list of the names of all free able bodied white male persons, between the ages of 18 and 45, who have resided for the term of one month within the bounds of said town, which list shall be separate from his assessment list and shall be headed 'militia list,' for which service such assessor shall receive the sum of one cent for each person so by him returned on said list, to be paid in like manner as other service of said assessor are paid."

Section 11 of the same chapter reads as follows: "If any town or ward assessor, or any clerk of any town or city, or any clerk of the board of supervisors of any county shall fail or neglect to make return of the number of persons liable to military duty, as required by law, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay a sum of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered in an action in any court having competent jurisdiction."

Section 1 of chapter 87 of the general laws of 1858 declares who shall be subject to military duty.

It may be necessary soon to know who are liable to do military duty, and what the strength of our militia is, and I therefore take the liberty of calling attention to the above statutes. *

MANY CITIZENS.

HANOVER, April 18th, 1861.

Guns for the Volunteers.

About two thousand stand of arms arrived at our depot to-day, directed to Adj. Gen. Swain, Madison, from the United States Government. They are undoubtedly intended to arm the volunteers from this State. Let them get ready to use them.

LADIES, ATTEND.—We are requested to state that reserved seats will be provided for the ladies at the war meeting to-night, and that they are respectfully invited to attend. The "Star Spangled Banner" will be sung, and their assistance is needed in giving effect to that immortal National Song.

☞ Rev. G. W. Lawrence will preach at the Court Room, Sunday morning (April 21st,) at 10½ o'clock. Subject of discourse, Similarity of sentiment and purpose between christianity and republicanism.

SHERMAN'S BATTERY.—This celebrated company of artillery from Fort Ridgely under command of Capt. Sherman, passed through this city at 6½ o'clock this morning. As it was expected that they would be here at 4 o'clock A. M., but few persons were at the depot at the time of their arrival.—There were sixty men in the company, and they had with them 50 horses and four pieces of ordnance. The whole number of cars used in their transportation is three coaches, twelve freight cars and two platform cars. Their destination is Washington. We are indebted to Mr. John W. Nichols, agent of the American Express company, for particulars.

NOBLY DONE.—Yesterday, the officers of the Central Bank of this city, proposed to the directors to tender $20,000 to Gov. Randall, to aid in the defence of the country. This proposition was unanimously adopted. It is with pleasure that we chronicle such noble and patriotic action on the part of our capitalists.

O. J. Dearborn has laid upon our table Harper's Magazine for May. He has also the New York and Chicago dailies of the latest dates.

FAIRBANKS' SCALES.—We would call attention, especially of the farmers, to an advertisement in another column, of these celebrated scales. The very general use of weighing machines renders it a matter of importance to all business men to know which are the best and most reliable. Farmers too, are especially interested in this, as they are coming into general use by them, in order to detect any mistakes in the weight of their grain, pork, wool, &c., which they take to market.

In order the better to advise our readers, we have examined the plan, construction and workmanship of the above scales, and without hesitation pronounce them the best in use. The long experience an constant application of the inventors, have reduced them to the simplest form possible of a compound balance. They have from time to time made important improvements, among which are the steel guards, secured by patent, to prevent friction of the loops on the beam, and of the greatest utility are the check rods which, while they do not in the least obstruct the free operation of the scale; entirely prevent all friction of the bearings on the knife edges of the scale, on which the platform of all scales must rest.

These stay rods were not used in the scales first made by Fairbanks, but experience has demonstrated that their use, by effectually preventing all chafing of the bearings on the pivots, adds essentially to the durability of the scale. These scales being always perfectly accurate, unequaled for durability, and the acknowledged standard, are the best and cheapest to buy.

They may be had at manufacture prices, at their warehouse, 35 Lake street, Chicago, and of R. J. Richardson, Janesville.

BADGER STATE NURSERIES.

LOUDON & ROBINSON,

PROPRIETORS,

Janesville, - - - Wisconsin.

THE proprietors would call the attention of all persons wishing to purchase

Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, &c.,

to their immense stock. It embraces everything usually found or cultivated at nurseries in this latitude. Our main stock is made up of such varieties as have been thoroughly tested and recommended by nurserymen and fruit growers of the northwest. No person purchasing of us will be humbugged by us, as many have been by eastern dealers. We have no connection with tree pedlars, as we prefer that every one would visit

Our Establishment

and make their own selections. We hope to obtain a large share of public patronage by

Fair and Honorable Dealing.

In starting these nurseries we intend to make them to the northwest what the Rochester Nurseries are to east. To accomplish these ends we have spared no pains or expense. Connected with our grounds we have where every variety of fruit is tested. As fast as new kinds are produced we procure them, and such as prove worthy of culture we propogate for sale.

Our collection of Fruit Trees consists of Apples, Pears, Plums, Cherries, Grapes, Strawberries, Raspberries, Blackberries, Gooseberries.

Ornamentals, of Maples, Elms, Ash, every kind of Evergreens, Snowballs, Lilacs, Spireas, Syringas, Flowering Almonds, Dogwood, Japan Quince, Roses, &c., &c.

THE Subscribers, Keley & Lund, would notify the citizens of Janesville and its vicinity that they have opened a

PAINT SHOP,

On Main Street, next door above No. 2's Engine House, and are prepared to execute all orders for

PAINTING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

with promptitude, in the best possible manner and at the most reasonable prices. We would also state that only we alone keep constantly on hand the true

KALZMOINIC PREPARATION for the purpose of calcining and whitewashing ceilings, which we can warrant, as it is prepared in all cases with Zinc, and one application never fails to restore plaster (no matter how dirty) to its primitive whiteness of hard-finish. We can warrant the preparation to give the best satisfaction. We would also call the attention of the citizens of Janesville to our

Graining and Imitation of Wood and Marble, in which we claim to stand unrivaled, as may be seen upon examination of specimens at all times in our shop. We also do

China Gloss or Porcelain

on a new and improved system. Our long experience in this branch of the business gives us claim to superiority. Particular attention will be given to

ORNAMENTAL FRESCO & PLAIN PAPER HANGING.

In everything perfect satisfaction is guaranteed or no pay required. Country work will receive prompt attention. Orders are respectfully solicited.

YOUNG AMERICA Leads the Van.

FOR NINE LONG YEARS

its proprietor

MOSES HARSH,

has kept the

"OLD FLAG"

of the Original Young America Clothing House afloat in this city, and yet uninjured by time, that same old flag has never

FLOATED MORE PROUDLY

than now, over the

LARGEST, BEST AND CHEAPEST

CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT

in the city of Janesville. His Stock of

SPRING & SUMMER CLOTHING

just brought on from the East, and purchased on

THE CHEAPEST TERMS,

CANNOT BE SURPASSED

in the West. His place of business, as everybody knows, is in

MYERS' OLD BLOCK,

known as the

YOUNG AMERICA CLOTHING HOUSE,

On Main Street,

where he Astonishes the People by offering, in

His Custom Department, for their purchase, the best of

Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c., at the very

Lowest Prices.

In saying this he does not deem it necessary to "hifalute" about "Palmetto Banners" and "Flags of the Union," and "Wonderful Secessions" and all that kind of stuff; but keeping steadily on the

Broad Gauge,

he defies

ALL COMPETITION

from all other establishments, little as they may be, or big as they pretend to be. His

Gent's Furnishing Department, consisting of

Shirts, Stocks, Handkerchief, Under Shirts, &c., will be found to comprise all that any gentleman may want; while in his

Merchant Tailoring Department with as accomplished and skilful a cutter,

MR. H. F. TREAT,

as can be found in the state, he can clothe any gentleman with as neat and tasty a

SUIT OF CLOTHES

as can be procured either in the east or in the west. If you want cheap clothing, without any "humbug,"

YOUNG AMERICA

is the place to find it, and then after you have got your entire suit, you will find the very best assortment of

HATS AND CAPS

from which to select and fit yourself out as the Best Dressed Gentleman

in the city of Janesville.

ALL THESE THINGS ARE SO.

Let others blow their

RAMS HORNS

and Tin Whistles till "their cheeks do crack," still in

Cheapness, Variety, Durability and Quality of Clothing, Young America is BOUND TO KEEP AHEAD.

PROPRIETOR OF

To the Public.

THE undersigned takes this method of notifying his friends and the public that he has leased, for a term of years, the East half of the Hyatt House building in this city, for the purposes of a

FIRST CLASS HOTEL,

to be kept under his own management and direction, and to be opened on or about the First Day of May Next.

Prior to opening the house, he deems it proper to say that that portion of the building leased by himself, will be ENTIRELY REMODELED, and when the changes are completed, he flatters himself that the

NEW HYATT HOUSE

will be found to be the most convenient and comfortable in the west. In this notice he does not deem it necessary to state any changes he proposes to make, except that the office, instead of being where it now is, will be located on the first floor in the Eastern end of the building, while the

Large Hall, 40 by 100 Feet, on the second floor, in the Western side of the building will be connected with the hotel and converted into a room suitable for making it one of the largest, most desirable and convenient public halls in the state.

Having had considerable experience as a hotel keeper in this city, in the old "American House" he hopes to be able (after the time above stated) to make the New Hyatt House a comfortable and desirable Home; for all who may choose to place themselves under his care.

SOLOMON HUTSON.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry, on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

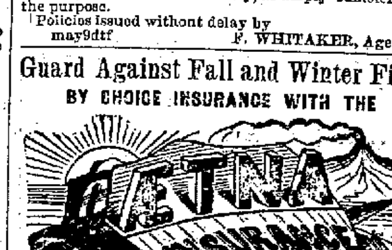

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
